SENATE. - Mr. Butler resumed his remarks from yesterday in further apology for the a tack of Mr. Brooks on Mr. Sunner. He said that when the Legislature of Massachusetts say that that | gentleman's act was cowardly, let them try him in any way they choose. [Applause.] Mr. Stuart said that the proprieties and ameuitics of the Senate were too often thus disturbed by applanse, and if the galleries cannot be occurred by gentlemen, they should be closed. The chair enquired whether the getalemen from Michigan moved that the galleries be closed. Mr. Stuart replied that he did not. Mr. Fessenden, in justice to the gallerns, said that the applicase came f om the floor of the Senate. Mr Butler said he would go ra in such away as nobely wou'd applaud again. [Laughter.] Mr. Brooks approached Mr. Sunner with no other purpo. then to d sgrace him. Mr. Brooks was one of the best impered fellows he corr knew, though impetuous, no doubt and quick at resumment. Mr. Summer received two flesh wound, and being rather handsome, did not expose himself. If he had been in the army, and had not gone with the army, the next day after the fracas he would have deserved to be eashlered. [Laughter.]

Mr. Butler concluded his remarks by claiming that he had convicted Summer of error, misrep-Wilson reglied, reading a statement from Sum. ners present physician, showing that from the 29th of May, Summer had been confined to his room and the greater part of his time to his bed in consequence of the assault, and saying that Sumner cannot attend to public businessfor some time to come. Builer had taken full revenge for the speech delivered by Summer This is the way itshould have been met and not by blows. Wilson endersed Sumners remarks relative to South Carolina and referred to the former speeches of Butler to show that ever since Summer had been in the Senate, Butler had applied to him offensive epithets, calculated to injure the feeling s of any man and insisted that Butter himself was he first agressor.

Wilson said that he would speak his opinions freely. No one held over him a plantation whip, and he would speak the more freely because his colleagues had been rudely stricken down for vords ultered in debate. Butler said he did not blame Wilson for taking his colleague's part, but when he had gone back to those old reports previous to June, 1854, it made him think what he should be sorry to suppose, namely : that mortified vanity arising from former conflicts had been the cause of this hast assault of Snuner upon him and his State. Summer did not say that in his affidavit but that what he uttered was in roply to his (Butler's) speeches of this session. He could not go back and recapitalete these old specches, for they were very long since inreof cu.

In commenting on the revolutionary service of South Carolina, he usked Wilson how many hattles Massachusetts had fought in the revolution? Wilson replied there were but few, because the enemy considered it safer to go to The Emperor Napoleon is reconsidering a South Carolina. ORLIFAN'S SAFES.

C. URBAR, Beq.: Dear Sir — we take pieasure in expressing our entiresatisfaction in the utility of your Salamander Safes, of which we had two in use at our liquor and Rectifying establishment, on Sycamore street, at the late severe configgration. Surrounded by the most combustible material, and remaining for nearly two days in the burning ruine, our surprise was beyond description in finding, after opening said Safes everything in good order. In tendering to your our alneers gratification, we do not healtafe to recommend your Safes to those in want of such an article, has we know from experience that they truly are what they represente be, "After proof."

We remain verytrally yours,
Wilfelink B, BRISTUL C.
Cincinnati, Oct., 1853.

I would call the attention of my friend sand the publicin general to the above letter, handed to me by Messre. W., B. & Co., extensive liquor merchants.—It is well known by the Cincinnatipublic that several of my Safes, of different sizes, have stord, of late, very soveretests. Among others, I would refer to heficat Mr. Scovill's druggist; that of Messre. Davie & Co., Iron merchants and founders: that of Mr. Scovill's contained counders: Safesailcame outvictorious althoughs urrounded by Safesail came out victorious although surrounded by the most combustable material.

Having acquired all the late improvements, I dare say that my Safes are inferior to nooe made this side the mountains. As to the outer appearance, I combine neatness with durability. Thank ful for ast favors, accutinuation of patronage is kindly effected, m7
